10/06/2019	●	DOCKET TEXT ORDER (no separate order issued:) The principal issues arising from the recommendations of the Fee Examiner seem to be travel time, redaction, timing and frequency of hearings and appropriate charges, if any, for making required disclosures. Counsel should address these issues and

		the following tentative rulings during the limited time available for oral argument on October 7 at 10 AM. Tentative rulings: There is no reason to depart from the posted and long-standing two hour allowance for travel; redactions are not appropriate, as time entries that are consistent with Guideline 13 and not vague should not reveal privileged or confidential matters; omnibus hearings for ALL Professionals on four month intervals are efficient, and counsel missing a deadline can wait four months, particularly since they are being paid 80% each month; retention applications are not the same as fee applications and must include required disclosures per FRBP 2014(a), and see J.
